

Students must be eligible for VA CH 33 Post 9/11 GI at 100% to receive this benefit. Current students in good academic standing or new students who are officially admitted to the University of St. Thomas are eligible for Yellow Ribbon. Students must submit this application AND a recent copy of the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) or Statement of Benefits. This information must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office.

Recipients will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis. Only complete applications will be considered. The university's participation in the Yellow Ribbon Program is reevaluated annually. The university reserves the right to change its funding commitment for this program or discontinue participation.
