AUDIO ADVENTURES

01. Into and Out of the Arches by Allison Vincent

Eavesdrop on the hopes and fears of a student at the beginning and end of their St. Thomas experience.

02. Facilities Management Noir by Allison Vincent

About that time Brady flooded, and the hard-bitten heroes of facilities management who clean up the messes we make.

03. Squirrels of St. Thomas by Shanan Custer

The campus squirrels aren't just hunting for pizza, like students; they're also trying to take advantage of the educational opportunities on campus.

04. Ghosts by Matt "Sass" Spring

There once was a Great Couch in the Leather Room of the O'Shaughnessy-Frey library. It, and other legendary places and things of St. Thomas past, still haunt the students who study there, whether they know about it or not.

05. Get Set by Bianca Nkwonta

Friends on the track and field team come to terms with changing relationships as they look ahead to study abroad plans that may separate them.

07. Day by Day by Bianca Nkwonta

A graduating student is practicing a song alone when a seminarian joins as accompaniment and the two talk about their life paths while making music together.

09. Mouth of the Mighty Mississippi by Matt "Sass" Spring

The Mississippi River attracts prospective student tours while being a great place to study. Have you ever thought about what the streams that run into it might be thinking?

02. Facilities Management Noir by Allison Vincent

About that time Brady flooded, and the hard-bitten heroes of facilities management who clean up the messes we make.

06. A Star for a Star by Shanan Custer

A diva of a Christmas tree gets ready for their big unveiling in front of the excited campus community.

08. Ireland Library Oasis by Matt "Sass" Spring

We wander into the otherworldly Ireland Library where the franticness of modern life melts away.

10. Cap and Gowns by Allison Vincent

At graduation, two professors consider their experiences over the past school year while one prepares for retirement.
