

Dean of Students Office FAQs

1. What actually happens in the Dean of Students Office?

Our office is one of advocacy, care, and support. We work with students through a formative conduct process, give leadership to orientation, and serve as a hub for CARE and support for students who need help navigating campus.

2. How can I stay up to date during the school year?

You can subscribe to the monthly St. Thomas Parent Newsletter. It includes articles from departments across campus and has important dates, deadlines, and tips for how to nudge your students toward valuable campus resource.

3. How do I report concerns about my student?

Parents can bring forth concerns by emailing DEANSTUDENTS@stthomas.edu or calling our office at (651) 962-6050. Our CARE Team has a process in place to respond to referrals that come in.
