U.S. Refugee Admissions Program
Central American Minors Flowchart

1. Parent in the US files CAM-AOR with assistance of local Resettlement Agency (RA)

2. Minor in El Salvador, Guatemala, or Honduras is interviewed by Resettlement Support Center (RSC)

3. Parent in the US receives DNA instructions, contacts AABB lab, submits DNA and pays for testing

4. Minor's DNA is collected abroad by the RSC and sent to the AABB lab

5. DNA results are received and file is reviewed (if all results are positive, parent is reimbursed)

6. Minor is interviewed by US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) Officer abroad

A. IF APPROVED FOR REFUGEE STATUS:

i. Minor has medical exam and receives Cultural Orientation

ii. Resettlement Agency conducts home study with Parent in the US

iii. Resettlement Agency provides sponsorship assurance

iv. With assistance from International Organization for Migration, Minor travels to the US to join parent

B. IF DENIED REFUGEE STATUS, AND CONSIDERED FOR PAROLE STATUS:

i. Minor must pay for medical examination

ii. Minor must book and pay for travel to the US through a USCIS approved process

iii. With assistance through a USCIS approved process, Minor travels to the US to join parent

C. IF DENIED REFUGEE STATUS (REGARDLESS OF PAROLE CONSIDERATION):

i. Minor may submit a Request for Review (RFR) within 90 days

22 Jan 2015